Tuesday, February 27, 2024

All Commissioners are at the MACo conference.

Wednesday, February 28, 2024

All Commissioners are at the MACo conference.

Thursday, February 29, 2024

All Commissioners are in.

The agenda was prepared and claims were reviewed and signed.

Discussion was held on the 2nd half tax bill and the additional 17.1 school equalization mills that the Supreme Court directed the counties to mill their taxpayers. Treasurer Rasnick presented several letters that other counties had prepared explaining the directive. She will craft one specific to our county.

One of the City Councilmen came in to ask some questions about applying for grants to offset the cost of the flags and plaque that the airport board had discussed putting up at the airport.

Friday, March 1, 2024

Commissioners Wallace and Roe are in. Commissioner Moody is out.

The Alcohol Tax Revenue was received and the claim was prepared to send it to Journey Recovery as they are the registered provider.

The checks were signed.

More discussion was held on the tax bill with the 17.1 mills and the discrepancies between Tyler Technologies and MACo amounts to be billed.

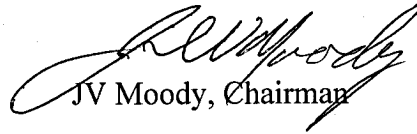

A discussion was held on establishing a date for a Cemetery Board meeting was held, as well as how to replace one of the appointees who had to step down.

Claims for the month of February totaled $106,285.98.

Payroll for the month of February totaled $468,450.66.

Respectfully submitted,
